COME NOW ALL PARTIES TO THIS ACTION and hereby file and serve this stipulated motion to set discovery and dispositive motion deadlines. This Motion is being brought pursuant to 14 C.F.R. § 13.217, Joint Procedural or Discovery Schedule, permitting the parties to submit such a schedule.

Attached as Exhibit "1" is the parties' October 16, 2006 stipulation.

Granting this motion would further the interests of justice in that the parties need additional time to complete discovery, and the upcoming holidays make it difficult to schedule depositions and other proceedings involving numerous witnesses.

Re: FAA v. Skycorp Executive Charters;
FAA Docket No. CP06NM0003; DMS No. FAA-2006-25627

Dear Mr. Lewis:

This concerns scheduling of this case for trial. The Court's scheduling order sets a very short time to conduct discovery and prepare for the hearing. You and I are both going to be out of the office for substantial time in December, and we also have Thanksgiving coming up.

Pursuant to 14 C.F.R. 13.217, we agreed to stipulate discovery to conclude on January 31, 2007.

Instead of the usual thirty (30) days, each party shall respond to written discovery in twenty (20) days.

Service by fax or email with operational pdf attachment shall be considered to be the same as personal service.

Dispositive motions must be filed no later than thirty (30) days after the close of discovery. That date would be Friday, March 2, 2007.

Please sign below confirming that this is an accurate summary of our agreement. I think this agreement should be filed with the
